Meeting called to order at 8:20 PM.

Approval of Minutes: Motion to approve November minutes made by USC, 2nd by SF. Minutes approved unanimously.

Treasurer Report: Bills are paid. Current balance is $1066.32. A $500 donation to Toys for Tots will be made. $200 payment for the web site due in January. There will be an expense for the appetizers at the December meeting. Remaining money will be held for unexpected needs during the off-season.

Old Business:

1. Championship recap – Going forward the league voted to cover the cost of EMTs for the championship games. The league will pay up to $250.00. PT made the motion, BP seconded. Motion passed 7-0.
2. As has been done in the past, the league voted to donate $500 to Toys for Tots. USC made the motion, NA seconded. Motion passed 7-0.
3. North and East Washington are interested in combining and joining G19. League voted to invite them to the January meeting to present their desires and intentions.

New Business:

1. Elections
 - a. President – Joe Scarillo was re-elected for a 2-year term. Vote was 7-0.
 - b. Secretary – Scott Madeira was re-elected for a 2-year term. Vote was 7-0.
2. PT is working with their school district to put a 12s team in place for 2008. More details to come.
3. Dave Ditler was at the meeting and expressed a desire to get $52 per game with the price locked in for 3 years. There hasn't been a pay increase in 5 years.
4. Rules to look at for 2008 season – This list will be expanded as people add items to consider in the annual review of the rules of G19.
 - a. 10/11 communications devices
 - b. Playoff structure or elimination of playoffs at some or all ages
 - c. Look at league fees for next year. Possible reduction.
 - d. Playtime Guidelines / Rules
 - e. Early weigh-ins
 - f. Official apparel for weigh-ins
